

TECH TIPS Free to Air Satellite Channel List

The following free channels can be viewed on any Free to Air or Sky receiver and many of the most popular ones can also be seen via freesat. Channels come and go on a weekly basis and the list given here is correct as of June 20th, 2008. It's from Wild Pete's Sky Channel Guide which you can find at www.wildsat.com.

For more detailed and up to date information visit <http://en.kingofsat.net/satellites.php> which not only provides information on U.K. Channels but also on just about every satellite channel in Europe. For British TV channels, click on "orbital positions" 28.2 °E & 28.5°E. You can see the beam used for every channel and this information, along with our footprint maps, will help you to work out exactly what programmes you'll be able to watch in Europe.
